The seal which appears on the cover of the MONROE ECHO is a presidential seal bearing the profile of James Monroe. On the reverse side of the authentic seal are the hands of an Indian and a soldier, and a peace pipe and a tomahawke which symbolize "Peace and Friendship."

The seals were first minted in silver when George Washington was president. With the incoming of each president, a new seal was made. Replicas are made in bronze by the United States Mint in Philadelphia and have been sought after as museum pieces. There is one on the James Monroe Memorial Library at the James Monroe Law Office.

Experiences in the lives of many James Monroe students while in school and out have been placed in the pages of this annual. This year of work and play, tears and laughter will be remembered and treasured by all of us at J.M. Here's our year in the MONROE ECHO of 1971.

Dedication

The MONROE ECHO is dedicated each year to a faculty member that the senior class feels has done a great amount of work to help in the education of students at James Monroe. This year, the annual is dedicated to a person that the students have loved and respected as both teacher and friend. Needless to say, it is our great honor to dedicate the 1971 MONROE ECHO to MISS CAROLYN R. ROBINSON.

From the Tree of Knowledge

The wind will blow our apples from the trees
And the years will make them richer; ripe
With the age of understanding, not of years.
Often, time's wind will be cold and strong,
And our hopes and dreams of apples fall down.
They will be bruised and battered —
They may wither on the harsh and real earth —
But their seeds will never die.
Next year, and the next, and the next,
New saplings will arrive in spring
And grow to newer heights and higher dreams.
Some years of sun and gentle wind
Our apple dreams will ripen, crisp and red,
And our hopes come true as autumn winds will blow.
The years will make our trees of understanding tall
And we will learn to grow and cope with life.
Our apples will reflect our hopes and dreams,
And, because they grow, we know they will come true.

The Student Cooperative Association is a representative organization composed of all James Monroe students. It works with the administration, the faculty, and student organizations to carry out the programs of the school. The S.C.A. council is composed of five officers: president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and reporter, a representative from each homeroom, the presidents of all school clubs and classes, and the chairman of the standing committees. This year's activities included the orientation for new students, the annual magazine drive, the preparation of Christmas baskets for needy families in the community, a dance in February for the student body, and the most important project — sponsoring the foreign exchange student, Catherine Laurent of France.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society was established at James Monroe High School in the fall of 1956. The faculty of the local chapter must approve all prospective members on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Members of the Sophomore class, with a scholastic average of 92% or above may be probationary members; juniors who maintain a 91% or above, and seniors who maintain a 90% or above are members, if they satisfy all other requirements.

Human Relations Council

The purpose of this council is to promote better relations among all students by providing a place where grievances can be logically and rationally aired and solutions suggested and resolved. This year the Human Relations Council purchased a new trophy case for the entire student body.

Modern Music Masters

The Modern Music Masters Club is a national honor society for music students. Its purpose is to foster interest in solo, ensemble, and organizational performance. It works to further the reputation of our school as a music center and to provide greater opportunities for public performance in the schools and community.

Basilisk

The Basilisk, James Monroe's literary magazine, is published annually in the spring. It was developed to encourage students to develop the talent of creative writing and artwork and to work with criticisms. The students are asked each year to submit works and the Basilisk staff chooses the best for composing the magazine.

Curtain Going Up

The senior class presented its senior play, a comedy in three acts, on November 20, 1970. Ironically, it was a play about the problems a typical high school had in producing a play. A couple of teachers found themselves being mentioned in the play – for example, the mean old Mr. Tanner, who would not pass Kenny MacKnight in Trigonometry and allow him to be in the plays play. The play was a great success under the direction of Mrs. Pappandreou and student director, Pat Coffey.

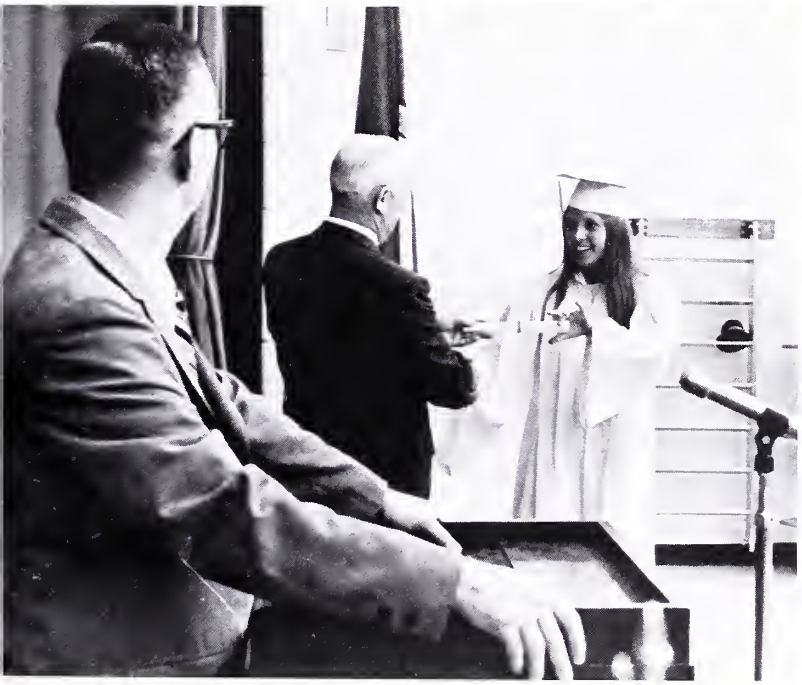
1971 Junior-Senior Prom

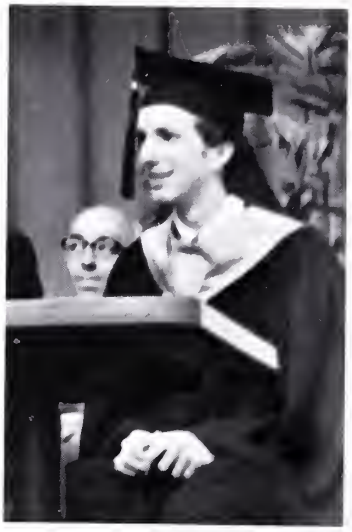
The 1971 Junior-Senior Prom was held on Saturday, April 24 at 8 o'clock in the James Monroe gym. The Junior class, under the direction of Miss Robinson, decorated the gym around an evening, moonlighted atmosphere. The music was provided by the Mainmen of Richmond. The Junior Class chose as its Prom Queen this year — Miss Betsy Jones, who made a beautiful picture standing upon her throne — a bridge.

The Senior Talent Show

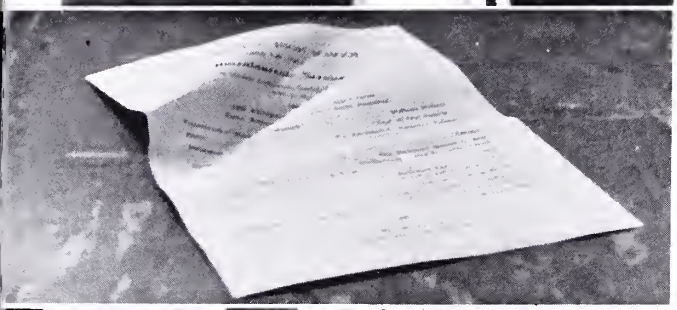
This year, for the first time, a talent show was substituted for the past productions of the Senior Variety Show. The show was produced by the senior class but any class was eligible to enter the talent part. The senior class did add bits of entertainment to the show, such as – a grit band, majorettes, ballerinas, and the fantastic Senior Golddiggers. Tom Sprow won first place this year with his version of Tobacco Road. Second place was a tie between singer Yvonne Poole and the gymnastics act of Darla Decatur and Shiela Cheek.

The Making Of A Graduate





VICTORIA



That's It . . .
We've Had It!

Class History

The first grade started our struggle to our last day as the Great Class of "'71". As usual, we started with the basic material – you know, ABC's and 1 + 1 = 2.

As we progressed through the elementary grades, we learned to tell time, sing hymns, and "see Jane run and Spot bark". (Difficult stuff you understand!)

Second grade also brought about the daily charts with a gold star if you attended, brushed your teeth, and knew how to behave. Mrs. Lucas, however, found a solution for her students who insisted on misbehaving – "Alright, who's got the monkey tail today?"

Third grade started off with a bang! The girls played chase with the boys (yeh, and some still do) and for some reason Jimmy Coppola and Vicki Virvos had to stay in a lot.

And poor David Parker – he used to number his girlfriends according to which he liked the best.

During our fifth grade year the styles of the time included a pink and white or blue and white striped seersucker shift for the girls. Some had two or three! The well-dressed boy wore a paisley shirt.

Our favorite place after school was Scottie's. Some of the more talented people joined the band that year. "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star" – remember Becky Painter? Did you ever get that down pat?

Well, here we were at the top of elementary school and only five years left!

Of course, in seventh grade we had our safety patrols. And who was in charge of them? – no one but the girls' dream come true – Mr. Spratt.

After a year of being on top of the world, we soon found out that being in the eighth grade meant being on the bottom for a while. We were led that year by our class president John Moss, Richard Crickenberger, secretary Janis Lipman, and Treasurer Lonnie Dawson.

That year the really "cool" thing to do was to sneak into Dragnets.

This was also the year of band trips with Mr. Roof as "sponsor", and to eliminate the boredom of long trips, make-out contests were begun, the medals being given as the buses arrived back at JM.

Upon entering the ninth grade, we acquired status – well, at least we had a name – Freshmen. Our class officers that year were president, Vicki Virvos, vice-president, David Belsky, secretary, Betsy Jones, and treasurer, Lonnie Dawson.

Line soccer was the sport that year in the boys' P.E. classes.

We also got a chance to read our first love story – Romeo and Juliet under Mrs. Johnson.

No one could ever forget Mr. Hodge, his crawly specimens, frogs, his checking hemlines to make sure they weren't over 3" above the knee, and his separating couples who happened to touch in the halls. Woe to those who got caught!

Our 10th grade year saw us being transformed into hillbillies under the watchful eye of Mr. Dave Witcher and his Tennessee cousins. How could we ever forget all those Davy Crockett songs and poker games in the back of the room?! Right, Clay Dickinson?

The silly sophomores elected Vicki Virvos as president, George Garner as vice-president, Kathy Rose as secretary, and Lonnie Dawson as treasurer of the class.

Of course, there was the branded bare bottom bunch of the "friendly" hockey bus rumbles. How did they ever get the lipstick and "71" off?!

This was the year we invaded Fredericksburg's Hot Spot. Under the influence of Hardee's intoxicating atmosphere, no one even noticed the Deathburgers, while in Mayfield, Carrie Grimes' Super Market became a popular Friday and Saturday night attraction.

The Superbees came on full force in '68-'69. We went all the way to state that year and nabbed the state title on a basket thrown on the buzzer.

In April the excitement of the spring season was heightened as the Elks Ballroom became the scene of our fabulous Spring Dance. Afterwards, the partying and fairy tales (How 'bout it, Georgiene and Little Bets?) continued at Kitty's p.j. party. How'd you like your chocolate ice cream cups, Lindsey?

Our junior year got off to a swinging start with our trip to Williamsburg. Among the highlights of the trip were seeing Citadel lose to the University of Richmond and the Russian cosmonauts as we toured Williamsburg. After all that excitement, we settled down to a "quiet" evening of fun and games. Stephen Dietz led the way with his "Pregnant Chicken" and "Popcorn" until he disappeared down the fire escape with Martha Snead. Trying to sneak away weren't you! Meanwhile, the Coast Guard was "fighting to keep their honor clean." What do you know about that, Chickenpecker? What was going on anyway? Two of our illustrious seniors enjoyed, a midnight rendezvous on the golf course. Deliece Grimes learned the consequences of peeking out her door after curfew, when she was smashed in the nose by "Twinkle Toes" Massey. Seriously, we learned a lot about Colonial Williamsburg and really enjoyed ourselves.

The weekends in our Junior year weren't bad either. How about the time Sue Traylor pushed Sandi Yost around Hot Shoppes in a Grand Union shopping cart. Boy, she's a speed demon!!!

During our Junior year Tom Sprow and his famous socks came into effect along with Miss Tutu.

Also, Robert Gaines became a preacher and the church went broke!

Thanks to the hard work of our class officers: president, Pat Nolan, veep, Kenny MacKnight, secretary, Ellen Graube, and treasurer, John Elwell, and the rest of us juniors, our Junior Prom, "Hawaiian Paradise", was a huge success. Spade and the Insights set the pace as the luau with roasted pigs, hibiscus, and palm trees along with the waterfall added to the scenery.

The beginning of this year, our Senior year, was marred by the loss of a dear friend and coach, Mr. Morris. This was a tragedy felt by all of the students and faculty.

Senior class officers elected to carry us through a very busy year were Ken MacKnight, president; Cheryl Leitch, vice-president; Dorothy Ware, secretary; and John Elwell, treasurer.

We also got a new principal and assistant principal, Mr. Garnett and

After all these years of "blood, sweat, and tears", those of us who were fortunate enough reached our Senior year. We were fortunate in having Catherine Laurent from France join us in our final year.

This was the year when some of us stopped having such a good time at Hardee's. Right, Jon Coble? Meanwhile, Midge Taylor was throwing some pretty good "charity parties", while the Mayfield "Civic Center" became a favorite hang-out of many of the students.

Once again, our fantastic athletic ability shown through as our senior men became 2nd best on the football field in state and the basketball team advanced into the state semi-finals held in Charlottesville. By the way, what was the "102 Crew" anyway, Pat Coffey? I'm sure we'll never forget the day Jimmy Zell made that basketball team!!

As the curtain rose on our Senior Play (Curtain Going Up), we found Bruce Fisher tripping up the steps. However, lucky for us, he regained his co-ordination to carry out the final scene with leading lady, Lisa Rossbacher.

Once again our girls came up with a spectacular dance in the form of the Christmas Dance with the Prophets providing the music.

And how about the day when Richard Crickenberger was in the phone booth and got turned around facing the wall. Poor guy finally had to put in a dime and call the office for help!

The highlight of our Senior year occurred on April 30, 1971 when, under the direction of Mr. Massey, we presented our Senior Talent Show in which Mr. Tommy Sprow won first place for his song "Tobacco Road". Opening and closing this star-studded production were the Golddiggers. The talent show provided the big break needed by one of Fredericksburg's top name groups, Blesky and Company as they sang their hit recording. "Okie from Muskogee".

The government trip to Washington on May 17 saw our senior classmates hamming it up once again as Barry Musselman put on his gay act on the steps of the Capitol.

Our senior members spent part of their leisure time watching America's latest sweetheart, Geraldine.

As our senior year draws to a close (and we're almost through Trivial Nonsense Class) and we all prepare to go our separate ways, we would like to say, "Mr. Tanner, though we were told by certain people to say we didn't love you anymore, we just want to inform you we still do."

Now with Robert Fondren leading the way as Valedictorian and Ben Hicks close behind as Salutatorian, we leave these halls of J.M.H.S. to continue on.

Respectfully submitted,
